

Hello from Hospice at Home West Cumbria

Coronavirus can be very frightening

Having information may help

We wanted to share with you links to easy read information about coronavirus and links to support

For easy read information on coronavirus click here

Click here for information on a new over-the phone support service for people with learning difficulties and/or autism called 'Keeping People Connected'.

PCPLD Network
Palliative Care for People with Learning Disabilities

For information and resources on end-of-lifeandbereavement support for people with learning disabilities, difficulties and/or autism click here

For more information on grief and isolation click here.

For more information about grief and trauma click here.

For more information about coping with talk about death and dying click here.

For more information on funerals and memorials click here

For information about looking after your feelings and body click here.

For easy read information from Mencap click here.

For guidance and information click here

Do you have any questions or would like to talk to someone in the Family and Bereavement Support Team?

Get in touch

01900 705200

Karen.Pirt@HHWC.org.uk